VOL. XVII. WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1898. No. 25

"THE WAR CHIEF."
Capt. Charles Greenlief Ayres, of the 10th U. S. Cavalry.

Mrs. Elizabeth Fairfax Ayres,—The Queen of the Army.

How much did Champ Clark pay the jack of clubs?

Why doesn't he sign something?

Talk is cheap for gamblers and cut throats.

The recent school reformers are composed of black legs, cut throats, and gamblers.

They all want a job or any thing in sight.

The leading reformer is a political floater, black leg and gambler.

You can see him any time with a cane in his hand [illegible] up men on the street who are as crazy as he is.

No sensible man will talk with him.

Only the fool will listen to his tale of woe.

Why does a negro want to be a democrat after the North Carolina escapades.

Chickens will come home to roost.

Dogs will bark no matter what you or do to them.

Think wisely and act accordingly.

Do as you think best.

When alleged reputable physicians lower themselves with the common gambler, the people have their opinion of them.

Be truthful as well as honest.

What has become of our new leadership in North Carolina politics.

Be what you are and nothing more.

The bums held a mass meeting last Monday night.

Some men are born fools and some are made fools.

While some other would rather be fools than anything else.

The color question is at fever heat in North Carolina.

When you know it all you should keep it to yourself.

Lookout for the Thanksgiving edition of the BEE.

S. B. Hege is a popular man.

You should be careful how you navigate.

The colored schools are in need of a sewing director.

If you don't know it all say so.

Some negro politicians are in need of good sense.

The Secretary of the Treasury is doing the handsome thing for the negro.

Harry Williams was presented a 9 pound boy last Thursday week.

He is a happy boy now.

Moral reformers are coming from the Division now.

All this world is a stage and the people are merely players.

L. D. Wine will be the next postmaster.

The President should consult the republican national committee.

There is too much treachery among some colored men.

It is the noble man who does noble deeds.

Do your duty always.

Some people will lie when the truth will suit better.

If you want a live paper you should read the BEE.

It is your friends who will impose upon you.

Thorp will be elected beyond all doubt.

The next House of Representatives will be republican.

The democratic party doesn't want the negro.

We can free Cuba, but we can not protect colored republican voters in North Carolina.

The Health Office is doing some good work.

It is the guilty who attempts to degrade the innocent.

Do you know what the world is Libertines are discussing morality in the colored public schools.

Some people will tell what they know and what they don't know.

A coward will not sign his name He will talk behind your back.

Style, Fit and Workmanship GUARANTEED.

Caution!—There have recently been issued several cheap reprints of the 1847 edition of Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, an edition long since superannuated. These books are given various names,—"Webster's Unabridged," "The Great Webster's Dictionary," "Webster's Big Dictionary," "Webster's Encyclopedic Dictionary," etc., etc.
Many announcements concerning them are very misleading, as the body of each, from A to Z, is 44 years old, and printed from cheap plates made by photographing the old pages.

THE SOUTH'S INGRATITUDE.

You may take a democrat in the South and fill his stomach with gold and wash him with silver and he will be an ungrateful democrat still. No President since the organization of the republican party has shown so much gratitude to "copperheads" and unreconstructed democrats as President McKinley and yet what is the attitude of that party towards him and the negroes who are members of the republican party? Mr. McKinley has taken, some of the most bitter rebels and made Lieut.-Generals, Brigadier-Generals, Lieut.-Colonels and other officers out of them and to what result? These same rebels that he has appointed are as inimcal to dhim and his administration today as they were prior to reconstruction.

The party that these men represent today defy all law and order and disregardsevery principle and article in our constitution and yet they continue to be appointed to responsible positions of trust. The President has been more than grateful, he has lived up to every promise in his letter of acceptance and inaugural address and to what result? To be rebuked, condemned, villified and ridiculed by the party which he has benefitted. That same feeling of resentment, on the part of the white southern people, is still alive in their hearts. The reign of terror in the South is taking a fresh hold, without the ability of the federal government to protect her citizens. The Governor of North Carolina was no more than a baby in the hands of the hot-headed rebels of the South. He was not man enough to exercise his authority as governor of a great State. With such power in the hands of the negro, no red shirted brigade or white cap bandits would have dared to attempt to intimidate any citizen of a State in which he had a right to live and vote.

OUR CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

In this city there is a colored population of over 8,000,000 souls. There is not enough christianity among that number to put their hands in their pockets and save the Colored Men's Christian Association building from being sold. There seems to be a lack of race unity and good sound christianity among the colored people to unite upon anything. The Young Men's Christian Association building that was purchased by a few of our enterprising citizens, for the benefit of the young colored men in this city was sold at public auction a few days ago. The indebtedness was not very large, but too large for our colored christian population to save. Without exception, the colored people in this city have no more race enterprise than a June bug has life in December. If you talk to our people about an excursion down the river in August, or a cake walk in December, they will listen to you and will no doubt purchase several tickets. But, if you talk to them about purchasing a ticket to save the Young Men's Christian Association building from being sold, they will move a foot to ask you whether you take them for fools or millionaires. The sale of this building is a disgrace to our socalled christian community. We refer to the colored people, because we have found more financial christianity among the whites in this city toward the negro, than there is among the entire negro population. There is a large per cent of the white population in this city ready and willing to help almost any colored enterprise. The great fault is, the colored people will not help themselves.

STILL WANT THE PHILIPPINES.

Our Commissioners in Paris are still insisting on the possession of the Philippines. The government in the first place should never have asked Spain for these islands. We should have landed our land and naval forces and taken possession. Had England been in a fight with Spain and whipped her, she would never have appointed any commissioners. She would have given Spain to understand that she was whipped and must give up and if she failed to accede to her demands she would have run her into the sea. If the United States would cease demanding and act more, this Spanish-American war would be terminated.

NORTH CAROLINA.

The State where the good (?) white citizens declared that the negroes should neither vote nor hold office. The colored editor of a paper there was given twelve hours ot leave the State. This great country that will tolerate such a thing as this and the Governor of the State must be a putty man to allow such threats to be carried into execution. There is but one thing for the colored man to do and that is to cease voting and pick up his "duds" and walk. It is better for the colored man to leave the South than it is for him to remain there and suffer the outrages that are being heaped upon him by those among whom he has lived for these many years.

THE NEXT HOUSE REPUBLICAN.

DEMOCRATIC WATERLOO—NEW YORK, PENSYLVANIA, MICHIGAN, KANSAS AND OTHER STATES GO REPUBLICAN. QUAY KNOCKS OUT THE PALM SIGNER WANNAMAKER IN PENNSYLVNIA. JUST AS THE BEE PREDICTED.

Democratic corruption in North Carolina.—Colored Republicans Intimidated—Congressman White elected; but Counted Out.—Will the Republican House have Nerve?—Chairman Babcock Predictions True. Mr. Thorp Counted Out in Virginia.

The results of last Tuesday's elections shows that the republicans won all along the line. Roosevelt won in New Yock and Senator Quay knocked out the Psalm singer Wannemaker in Pennsylvania. The republicans were successful in Kansas, Illinois, New Jersey, Michigan and many other States. In the colored republicans were intimidated to such an extent that they were afraid to vote. Congressman White of North Carolina, although elected was counted out by the democratic returning board.

In Virginia, Congressman Thorp was also counted out. In many republican counties the democrats failed to count the votes of the republcans who voted for Mr. Thorp. The Custom House ring of republicans issued a circular some time ago calling on the colored republicans not to vote for Mr. Throp.

CHAIRMAN BABCOCK,

of the Congressional Committee, never changed his predictions from the first, that he would elect a republican House of Representatives. The House is solidly republican and if the republicans have nerve they will refuse to seat any democrat from North Carolina or another State where the democrats used fraud and intimidation.

IN SOUTH CAROLINA;

there were four colored men lynched without cause or provocation.

"THE WAR CHIEF."

CAPTAIN CHARLES GREENLIEF AYRES.

The Bravest Officer in the 10th Cavalry.

HE DISTINGUISHED HIMSELF ON SAN JUAN HILL AND THROUGHOUT THE CUBAN WAR. LOVED BY HIS MEN AND RESPECTED BY HIS ENMIES. HE IS LOVED BY OVER, 8,000,000 OF AFRO-AMERICANS WHO WOULD BE GLAD TO SEE HIM BRIGADIER-GENERAL IN THE REGULAR ARMY.

A DEVOTED AND BEAUTIFUL WIFE AND LOVING CHILDREN LEFT ALONE WHILE A BRAVE SOLDIER DEFENDS HIS COUNTRY. TWENT-FOUR YEARS IN THE ARMY.—A BRILLIANT MILITARY HISTORY. LET MERIT BE REWARDED.

Brave, honest and fearless soldiers are born not made. The recent Spanish-American war demonstrates that fact. The Ninth and Tenth Calvaries of colored men were officered with men of distinguished bravery and by virtue of their heroism the American government will recognize their merit and worth. We wish to enlist the united efforts of the Afro-Americans throughout this country to combine with the wishes and petition signed by every man of the 10th U. S., cavalry, who was in Cuba to make their "war chief" a Brigadier General in the Regular Army, thereby recognizing a friend to the colored regulars. The BEE this week presents to the American Republic and its several thousands readers, the portrait of

of the 10th cavalry. A man who is loved for his humanity, honored and admired for his bravery and distinguished for his many daring and heroic deeds on the field of battle. The history of the Spanish-American war could not be complete if the heroic deeds of Capt. Ayres were left out. The 10th cavalry as well as 8,000,000 Afro-Americans in this country want this young and dashing officer promoted to brigadier generalship in the regular army. Capt. Ayres is entitled to this honor, his services for twenty-four years in the army, defending the honor of his country are sufficient in them selves to promote him to the brigadier generalship. While standing alone on looking down in the deep ravine on the night of July 2nd when the Cevera's marines, about nine hundred, tried to cut through our lines. This picture shows his figure silhouetted against the sky as he stood alone on the crest of San Juan hill. Our troops went into this position after dark. The Rough Riders were up the hill in front of Ayres troops resting, the Spaniards came so close to the 12th U. S. Infantry, they could hear their voices. The 12th opened fire on them and a perfect sheet of fire it was

SAN JUAN HILL,

On this hill, far away from his loving and sweet wife and two dear children, this brave soldier stood alone. The shot and shells were flythick and fast. The brilliancy of the moon was a light for the enemies guns But undaunted he stood, while wife and those children were wrapped ing in dreams of San Juan and the absence of their chief, a husband and a father. It takes a brave man to leave a dear wife and sweet children; to give up friends and relatives and cast his lot among a semi-barbarous race.

When the command was given to "fire! fire! Give them h—l,"—Capt. Ayres, was asleep on the ground with a little piece of blanket over his head, as if inspired, he jumped on his feet, ordered the men "not to fire" and thus saved the Rough Riders from being cut to pieces by our own men. In Gen. Wheeler's report he spoke of hearing the voice of Capt. Ayres above the din and roar of the guns, as he went about touching his men and calming them down, showing to them the frightful ruin to their comrades had they obeyed the order. He went alone on the crest of that hill under a storm of bullets to see the ground and when all was quiet and he coming down the hill a voice called and asked, "who is that officer giving those commands." It is Capt. Ayres, 10th cavalry." "Come this way Capt. Ayres I want to speak to you," he went in the direction of that voice, and it was Roosevelt, who threw his arms around him and said, "Capt. Ayres you are the hero of the old guard tonight, I am safe with you on my right." Col. Roosevelt recommended Capt Ayres for the medal of honor for that night, (saving the command) he there commanded some nine hundred men. Col. Roosevelt wrote these words: "Full though the cavalry be, I know of none I would rather have by me in a fight than Capt. Ayres." Again he wrote. "Capt. Ayres is as fine a man on the battlefield as I ever saw. If ever I fight again, I hope it may be alongside of him." Capt. Beck, 10th cavalry said, "Roosevelt depended on Capt. Ayres for all counsel." Col. Roosevelt in an article in the Criterion was given the credit for being on the top of that hill on July 2nd, but Col. Roosevelt is the last man who would care to steal another man's thunder. Fifth and sixth generation in the army.

SALUTING PRESIDENT MCKINLEY

This snap shot of Capt. Ayres and his little boy was taken while he was saluting President McKinley. His little son is Henry Fairfax Ayres. Capt. Ayers is the great-great-grand son of Gen. Henry Dearborn, who was commander in-chief of the army of 1812 and Secretary of War under Jefferson (on Washington's staff,) son of Major General R. B. Ayres who Gen. Grant said was the best artilleryman in his army. He was born and reared a soldier. He has been twenty-four years, in the 10th cavalry and has never had a detail away from troops He acted brigadier general's part in Cuba. His fidelity to his men; the respect he has for them has endeared him to them.

They are looking and hoping to see Capt. Ayres promoted to brigadier-general as a recogniton of his services.

CAPT. AYRES GALLANTRY,

On June 24th at La Quasima when the 1st and 10th regular cavalries and the Rough Riders engaged the first Spaniards on Cuban soil and drove them back to the entrenchments around the city it is not surprising that the name of Capt. Ayres should be written on the pages of history as well in front of the American forces. A special act of bravery which caused him to be recommended for the medal of honor occurred when Major Bell of the 1st cavalry, fell leading his squadron, a bullet having broken his leg. Capt. Ayres under a terrific storm of Spanish bullets which had momentously stopped the American advances and Gen. Wheeler says, "It was suicide for a man to stand up," hurried to Major Bell's assistance, calling assistance from some of his subordinates and carried this helpless officer to a place of safety.

Capt. Ayres' regiment has had eighty two engagements with the Indians. He directed the volley that killed the noted Indian chief Victoria, near Rattlesnake Springs, Texas, August 6, 1880.

WHAT HIS MEN SAY.

There is not a man in the 10th cavalry who doesn't love Capt. Ayres. A letter from one of them will show the sentiment of the entire regiment towards him

Ft. Apache, Jan. 20, 1891.

I take pleasure in stating that I have known 1st Lieut. C. G. Ayers, 10th cavalry, about 13 years, during which time I have observed him in command of men on post and in the field. As an officer on the drill guard on post, I have never seen his superior in the field, he was efficient in every way and on the occasion of the affair with Victoria on August 6, 1880, at Rattlesnake Springs, Texas, evinced all the courage and correct ideas of command which prove the soldier. He has served under me and I have long esteemed him one of the most thoroughly disciplined officers I have met in the army. I will mention that on one occasion at St. Davis, Texas, he, at the risk of his life, disarmed and controlled a desperado saving an officer's life, the ball from the scoundrel's pistol intended for Ayres' friend, cutting Ayres across the stomach, he being at the time unarmed. I wish that if the opportunity offers, Lieut. Ayres abilities and conduct will meet with the recognition they deserve.

Signed: Wm. H. Beck,
10th Cavalry.

AFTER THE REVIEW.

After the review of the 10th Cavalry by the President, Gen Wheeler and the regiment were entertained at lunch and in a speech which the General was compelled to make, he said: "I want to introduce to you an officer who by his conspicuous gallantry and highly distinguished services, won the admiration of all who saw him. I saw him myself in three days' battle lead his men in this gallant manner. That officer is Capt. Ayres of the 10th Cavalry." Capt. Ayres, in reply, said that he wished the honor and credit given to the men in ranks who carried the carbines, who dug the trenches, stood in them, and filled them with their dead bodies, covering up their comrades. A Washingtion paper says that it was to Mrs. Ayres that the reception of the 10th was due, and to her untiring efforts, aided by a number of loyal women and generous citizens, that it became a great sccess. Mrs. Ayres was aided by the Misses Ida and Lilly Neumeyer. When Capt. Ayres' Co. E saw him greet her a Sergeant approached and asked if the men might be presented, which she kindly granted.

Captain Ayres carried the cartel making the exchange of Hobson.

MRS. ELIZABETH FAIRFAX AYRES.

Mrs. Ayres the only daughter of Col. John Walter Fairfax was born at Oak Hill, Loudoun County Va. The general plan of this colonial house is that of the Executive Mansion in Washington, it seems typical, in a sense of the character, so noble in construction of Col. Fairfax, the father of Mrs. Ayres, a descendant of Thomas Fairfax, who proved titles to lands in Virginia as early as 1667. His mother was Elizabeth Lindsay, allied alike, the Burrells, Tuckers, Wirts Carters, Lees, Henrys and Pages of Va. to Rachel Lindsay who married Archbishop Spotswood in the time of James VI. Col. Fairfax, known as "Long street's fighting adjutant," for his distinguished gallantry and intrepid courage fought like a Trojan and surrendered like a man.

When the olive branch was held out to the southerner by the old hero of Appomattox, John W. Fairfax accepted the situation surrendered his hostility to the government along with his sword and has since been identified with the party of progress and liberal ideas in Virginia the home of the Fairfaxes. He inherited a large fortune from his father, lived and entertained as none others could around him. General Grant and his Cabinet were his guests for a few days. It is not surprising his daughter, Mary Elizabeth, should combine the blue and the gray, when she married in April 1884 to First Lieut. Charles Greenlief Ayres, son of Gen. Grant's "finest artillery commander," Major-General Romeyer B. Ayres. She was one of the most brilliant and popular belles of White Sulphur Springs, her engagement to a lieutendent in the army was a surprise to her friends."

In glow of her girlhood, she married Lieutenant Ayres, a dashing and handsome young cavalry officer, and until brought East to educate her children, has been since her marriage with her husband, whose service has always been on the frontier in Texas, Indian Territory, Arizona, Mexico and Montana, loved and honored by officers and soldiers, there is no more popular woman is the army.

SCHOOL OF PRINTING.

We would respectfullly call our readers' attention to a new field of lador that THE BEE has inaugurated at its office, 1109 I street, N. W.—a School of Printing for colored youths. It is the intention of the management that any who may avail themselves of the advantages of this school, shall receive a complete practical training in the art of printing in all its branches. The instructions will be under the personal supervision of Mr. Chase, member of the Typographical Union of this city, and who is without doubt among the best all-round printers in the country. Our facilities will be augmented by an entire new printing outfit, including all the latest styles of type, job presses and cylinder press, which will give pupils a chance to be up-to-date in the trade. In this connection we would ask our patrons to send in their orders for job work of any kind, as we will now be able to fill all orders from the smallest visiting card to the largest poster, and promise that our prices and work will compare favorably with those of any firm in the city.

Any young man desiring a trade will do well to write us for terms, etc., or call at this office and look over the establishment. The school will open on July 26th, and those desiring tuition will do well to inquire at once, as only a limited number can of necessity be accommodated. For information, terms, etc., Address, W. Calvin Chase, Manager Bee School of Printing.

Thanking you for past favors, and feeling assured of your support in this new endeavor, we are yours, THE BEE.

There is some talk of making Justice Hewlet one of the temporary Judges of the Police Court.

The funeral of Mary W. Keating, the daughter of Mr. Chester B. and Mrs. Clara J. Keating, took place in the University Park Temple church, last Thursday at 3 o'clock. The church was crowded and many persons were compelled to remain on the outside. Many teachers and pupils of the High school were present. "Maggie" for such was the pet name of the dear girl, she was not sixteen years of age at the time of her death. She was very studious. She was in her second year High school. She completed the entire numberof graded schools, never having to repeat one grade. She was a modest, unassuming girl, who by her lady like bearing, commanded the respect of all with whom she came in contact. She was the secretary of Park Temple Sunday school, with which she was identified. Hadshe been spared a few years longer she would, without doubt, have developed into a beautiful woman, possessing many lovely attributes. Rev. Sterling N. Brown, the pastor of Park Temble, preached a touching sermon portraying many admirable traits in the now mourned Maggie. The pastor was assisted by the Revs. Moses Lake, Walter Brooks and W. J. Howard.

AN EMINENT COLORED MAN

THE LATE UNITED STATES SENATOR BLANCHE K. BRUCE'S ABILITY AND TACK.

From Success.

Blanche K. Bruce, Register of the Treasury, who died in Washington, March 17, was one of the few colored men who have attained high eminence Next to Fred Douglass, he was regarded as the most conspicuous man of his race. Mr. Bruce was born in Prince Edward County, Virginia, March 1, r841. He was of African descent, was born a slave, and received the rudiments of education from the tutor of his master's son. He taught school in Hannibal, Missouri, and later became a student at Oberlin. In 1869, he became a planter in Missippi, and was appointed a member of the Mississippi Levee Board. He was elected sheriff of his county, and subsequently Superintendent of Education.

In 1875, he was elected United States Senator as a repuolican, and served until March 3, 1881. He was a member of every republican national convention held since 1868. In 1881, he was appointed by President Garfield, Register of the Treasury, and later was appointed Recorder of Deeds of the District of Cloumbia. Several months ago he was again appointed Register of the Treasury by President McKinley.

Roscoe C. Bruce, Mr. Bruce's only child, eighteen yeers old, is in Washington, preparing to enter Harvard.

Much of the success of Mr. Bruce was undoubtedly due to his tact, which seemed never to desert him. A story was told of an experence he had just after his election to the Senate, from Mississippi:—

"It was announced that he would go to Washington by one of the Missis sippi steamboats, at least as far as St Louis. The captain, a man of the name of Leathers, was a typical Mississippi steamboat captain, and he was reported to have said that he would show the black senator that he would have to keep his place on his boat, and if put on airs because he happened to a senator, the captain would teach him manners.

"As soon as Bruceboarded the steam he sought the captain and said: p--'Capt. Leathers, I am going to Washton, and part of the way as a passenger an your steamboat. My name is Bruce, and possibly you may have heard of me. What I want to say is, that I know perfectly well what the feeling of many people who are travelers regarding persons of my color is. They cannot help it, and I cannot help it, I am going to give them no occasion for any annoyance while I am a passenger on your boat. I simply ask you that you see to it that I am made as comfortable as possible and I assure you that you will have no reason for complaint."

"The bluff captain stepped back a pace or two, looked Bruce over, and then held out his hand and said, with great emphasis: "You shall sit at my table; you shall sit on my right hand on the entire trip, and if any man objects he will have to fight me. A man who can talk as you have, and as fair as you are, is better fitted to be a United States Senator than some of the white senators I have carried on this boat.' On that entire trip of some three days, the captain made Bruce his honored guest."

THE POLICE AND FIREMEN'S PARADE.

MAJOR SYLVESTER AND CHIEF PARRIS MAKE A FINE DISPLAY—LIEUT. KENNEY WINS THE PRIZE.

The annual parade of the Police and Fire departments, took place on last Monday afternoon. Major Sylvester, chief of the police department, had his men out in full force. They were well equipped and presented a fine appearance. The chiefof police, Maj. Sylvester, who recently succeeded the late Wm. G. Moore, has demonstrated fine disciplinarian qualities since he took charge of that department. Indeed every precinct was well represented. Lieut. Kenny of the Eighth precenct won the silk ensign, which was presented by Commissioner Wight. It was a great day for Lieut. Kenny and his men when Mr. Wight presented them the flag of honor.

CHIEF PARIS,

represented the Fire department. The chief is a fine looking man, who has won the name of chief by hard work and dilligent application to duty. This department presented some fine men, horses and engines on Monday. Eeerything went off in order which was evident that the right men are in the right places. President McKinley reviewed the procession and expressed himself highly pleased with both departments. To a representative of the BEE the President said that he didn't know that the District government had such fine Police and Fire departments.

AT THE THE THEATRES.

At Kernan's, Minor and Van's Bohemian Burlesquers commence their week's engagement November 7th. OUR SEWING DEPARTMENT.

AN UNPOPULAR AND CONTRARY DIRECTRESS.—WHAT THE RESULT OF A CHANGE WOULD BE—UNANIMOUS COMPLAINT.

Perhaps the hardest worked teachers in the public schools, are those in the sewing department. With a contrary and unpopular sewing directress, the teachers are having a hard time. It is not supposed that Superintendent Cook is aware of the contrary and arbitrary actions of this sewing directress. The program of this department is the most "zig zag" instrument that one would desire to read, and whenever a teacher goes to the one who has charge of this department she is either insulted or she is told that such and such a change can not be made, although it is for the best interest of the schools. There are several young ladies in this department who stand high in this community and who are entitled to consideration. As a sample of the arbitrary action of this directress the BEE will give a few. A teacher who resides on Meredian Hill is sent either to South Washington or in the neighborhood of the Government Printing Office, A teacher who lives in South Washington where she had previously taught and made a record, she is sent near the jail and the teacher who lives in that vacinity or in the northeast, is sent entirely out of the reach of cars. The report is that the directress of sewing has assumed the authority to make an assistant out of one of the teachers, without the authority of the superintendent or the industrial committee. This teacher is called to the Sumner building two or three times a week ostensibly of assisting the directress. If she is sent out to teach she is given two schools not 100 feet from the directress office.

The BEE wants to know what right has this discrimination to be made when all the sewing teachers are supposed to fare alike. If a teacher should ask this modern reformer of the sewing department if they can exchange so that it will be more convenient to them and especially in wet and rainy weather, she replies in a most insulting manner, by telling them that Mr. Cook will not permit it. The BEE is of the opinion that Mr. Cook is not a party to anything that would inconvenience his teachers.

The committee on industrial education is requested to investigate this alleged assistant in the sewing department and other irregularities in this "zig zag" program.

OTHER DEPARTMENTS

are governed differently. Misses George of the physical culture department and Cook of the cooking department are ladies of refinement who sympathize with their ladies teachers. Their disposition is not ot show that they are the "bosses" but to advance the best interest of their schools.

Miss George is reported as calling to her room all of her teachers, and methods are discussed and plans suggested as to the most convenient way to make the work agreeable to her teachers.

Miss Cook does the same thing. If a certain route is inconvenient to the teacher these ladies get together and discuss the "ifs" and "ands."

They don't set up and lecture their teachers as though they were a lot of school children.

A directress should have the respect and confidence of her teachers.

The question is, why should Miss Griffin, who is the logical first assistant and an experienced and competent lady be subordinated for one less experienced?

ROYAL BLUE TRAINS.

In September last, railway officials from London were sent to America, to get ideas on the railway passenger service of the leading lines in this country, and in their official report, which was printed in the London Times in January, it was stated that the "Royal Blue Line" series of magnificent passenger trains, running between New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, lead the world for quick and exquisite train service.

The "Royal Blue Line" service consists of nine elegant passenger trains a day in each direction between the cities named above. They are the finest and fastest trains in the world. Their equipment was built especially for the service by the Pullman Company, and includes every modern convenience known for the comfort of passengers. The trains are vestibuled from end to end, and hauled by the strongest and fastest locomotives in the United States.

The exquisite day coaches of these trains are worthy of special note. They are beautifully upholstered, each containing a washroom and smoking compartment.

The parlor cars are the most palatial ever built, being fully seventy-three feet long. In addition to this service, three new parlor cars were added in April, and are the first of this kind ever run; they are richly upholstered and ornamented throughout in most beautiful designs. A ladies' retiring-room is provided in one end of the car. This room, which is six feet square, is furnished with a beautiful dresser with large mirror and a number of drawers. On each side of it are upholstered corner seats. In another corner is a bookcase and stationary washstand. The room was designed for especial comfort of ladies, who have always claimed men had the best of it when travelling. The usual smoking apartment, however, is at the opposite end of the car.

The dining cars are operated by the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company, and especial attention is given to the menu. Every delicacy is served in season, and the service is unsurpassed.

In addition to the already perfect service of "Royal Blue Trains" mentioned above, there will be put into service May 15 a "Royal Limited" train, which will leave New York at 1.00 P. M., making the run to Washington in FIVE hours. Returning, the "Royal Limited will leave Washington at 3.00 P. M., arriving New York at 8.10 P M. The "Royal Blue Line" will then boast of three trains which make this extraordinary fast time between Washington and New York, which has never been attained by any other line. The "Royal Blue Trains" between Baltimore and Washington make the run in FORTY-FIVE MINUTES—the fastest regular service ever attained between the two cities.

The terminal at New York City is the most convenient for all points in Greater New York. Passengers can land at South Ferry (Whitehall Terminal), where, under the same roof, connection is made with the elevated lines of the second, Third, Sixth and Ninth Avenues, and the Broadway, Lexington and Columbus Avenue Cables. All the Brooklyn Ferries also start from this point, and by taking Anna:—It is unnecessary to fret over what people may say. No lady will respect another.

C. M. T.—Always wear dresses becoming to your complexion.

Ollie:—There is no doubt that you will realize your expectation.

M. L.—Some people will mistake your disposition for something else.

E. McG.—You should not fret. A refined disposition will commend one.

O. M.—If your escort cannot accompany you to the reception, certainly it would be in bad taste for him to call for you.

Miss E. T.—Benefits are given to those deserving. You should be popular enough to command all classes.

Music—There is yet a lack of uniformity in the musical department of the public schools.

M. M.—The only means that you have to know is to read such books that will give you the information.

C. T.—A young lady should be very careful with whom she associates. There is not enough care taken in the selection of those we select as associates.

L. M. T.—Your reading should be of a select character. By all means it should be solid as well as instructive.

O. T.—Don't be too familiar on short acquaintance. It results in no good.

B. O.—It is the honest girl who succeeds. You may believe in gayety, but it will never win a solid man.

Tillie:—Style may be alright some times. It often turns the head of some people.

T. I.—A modest girl is bound to command respect and admiration.

Letters:—Always write your letters so that a third party can read them. Never write secrets in a letter, not even to your best friend.

Ella:—Marry if you think you will better your condition. It is folly to marry trouble.

L. T.—Honesty is bound to be rewarded sooner or later. The gay butterfly may fly for awhile, but the honest refined girl will win in the end.

Anna:—It is with you whether you succeed or not. You are the guardian of your own future. It cannot be taken from you without your knowledge or consent.

C. T.—Always be of service to those you have, in any way, aided you.

L. O.—Too much interest is not necessary to be tolerated. It means no good.

C. T.—Yes, be a positive character in your dealings with all persons.

L. T.—Neatness is one of the winning features in any one.

Miss R. M.—Mrs. Wm. Bell Lowe was recently elected president of the General Federation of Woman's Clubs.

Nellie:—Mrs. S. Stewart Frackelton is the first woman potter in this country.

L. M.—The stage is becoming more refined. There is as much sedateness and culture on the stage as you will find anywhere.

L. M.—The ladiese of the colored public schools have organized a teachers' benefit association. It is succeeding very well.

Hattie:—It is not necessary for you to work so hard. You will get no credit for it. The most successful person is the one who takes his time.

School:—Yes, there is a disagreement over a salary. The Commissoners have taken a hand in it. What the outcome will be is not known.

Lizzie:—It is hard to understand what you mean. You should be one thing or the other.

M. T.—You are studying French. Do you not think that a business education is better? French will suit a class of leisure more so than it will one who doesn't expect to be in society.

Jockie:—No girl should permit a young man to monopolize her time without coming to some understanding. After asking the privilege of calling, a man should by all means make his intentions known.

School:—Yes, there are entirely too many bosses in the public schools. The boss's rules conflicts with the teacher and the results are usually poor.

L. E.—A person with empty brains could not be expected to have good sense.

Rachel:—Take my advice and don't be so suspicious. Your home affairs should be kept to yourself.

A. B.—Your case is a serious one. In fact like you are anxious to wed before he may propose. Men like to wed and not to be sought after.

Essie:—Yes one can always tell when another is used to any thing. Suspicious people are usually the most guilty.

B. R.—Only silly people boast of their wealth. There are but few rich Afro-Americans.

Emma:—Don't be alarmed as it is only the dissatisfidd person who is continually finding fault.

C. T.—It is always best to do your duty notwithstanding what some other people may say.

SECRET ORDERS.

DEUS MEUMQUE JUS,

To the different Temples of Mystic Shrine Consistories of the R. S. and Councils of R. and S. M. and the fraternity in general. I desire to submit the following: On the 3rd of November '98, I was sent for by my chief at the City Postoffice, who showed me one of the most scurrilous and infamous papers that I ever saw, the paper in question was so bad that my chief refused to even let me take it away to make a copy, I was not surprised for the simple reason, on the 15th day of October, between the hours of 3:30 and 3:50 p. m., I was informed that a diabolical combination had been effected to send the matter to the Post office, to have me removed, thereby taking bread from my wife and children, because that was about the only way they could get even with me. The papers stated that I had stole a lot of money belonging the A. A. S. R., and Mystic Shrine and that i had refused to return the property of the bodies, which I desire to state, not so. In order that the members of the various bodies may understand how Mr. Jones has been conducting business the following is submitted. In consideration of a Power of Attorney given me by Mr. Jones dated Dec. 19, 1895, also the advice given in a letter dated August 20, '96, in which Mr. Jones says that it would be a good plan when you make a man a Master Mason to give him the Chapter and Commandery degrees and 32 degree and Shriners, in fact if I were you, I would give him all the degrees in Masonry, (this letter was acknowledged by Mr. Jones at the D. C., in September '8, in the presence of about 45 Shrines of the 2 Temples.) I by the power in me vested, elevated about 150 Masons to the several higher degrees and got what money I could and took their notes for the balance. The following financial statement is submited from 1895 to '98 Received from the A. A. S. R., in the D. C., about $300 in cash and notes to the amount of about $500. Expended as follows for professional services as Grand Secretary-General at $75 per annum, $225; $75 for postage, stationery and papers Cash received from Mystic Shrine as follows:

In 1894, Kansas City, Mo., Mecca P. $2.90, Egyptian $2.60, Adel Kater, $4.50, total $10.00; extended for J. G. Jones $13 and $10 for Im. Recorder.

In 1895, Egyptian paid $2.10; Pasha 1,10; Fexzen 1 40, Constantine 1.50; Mecca 3.10; Medina 4.00; Adel Kader 4.00; Mohammed 1.60; Arabia 5 40; total $23.60. Expended to I. C. R. for postage and stationery $14.60, to Im. Recorder, 8.60, for 50 Washington Sars $1: total $23.60. N. B.—1894 Expended for stationery 3.30 postage, 3.75; one Seal 2.50; printed notices 1.25; total $11 and $23.

In 1896, Constantine P 1.60; Medina 3.10 Kaliff Alee 4 90, St. Augustine 1.90, Summit 1.30, Pyramid 2.20, Jerusalum 2.40, King Solomon $ 4, total $21.-60. Expended for professional services in preparing the Ritual o Sphinx $16 50, stationery $6, postage $10; notice in BEE $1, total $33'50.

In 1897, Temples P Medina $8.50, Constantine $5; Summit $3.25; Kaliff Alee $13; Egyptian $6; Mecca $6; Imperial $5.25; Islem $2; Absynia 10 75; Fezzen 3.75; St Augustine $5; Grace $4; total $72.50. Expended for postage, stationery and papers (news) $40.90; to D. F. Seville on salary as I. C. R $31.60, total $72 50.

In 1898, Temples P as follows, Imperial 3.00; Constantion 4.25; Aleppo 2 50; Kaliff Alee 8.00; Carters 4.00; Temples W. C., 12; Cairo 2.75, total $36.50. Expended as follows, for postage $10. Returns $5; Im. Decree, 2.50, on bill of I. C. R., for five years professional services as follows: For salary due for 1893-4, $25, for '95, '96, 97 and '98, at $40 per annum $160. Cash received '98, $36 50 Expended for office materials $17.50 on salary over due, $19 due D. F, Seville on salary due, balance $134. In conclusion the Grand Commandery of K. T. D. C. (Va. Avenue faction) could pay me $50 per annum for services as grand recorder with 10 commanderies, why there are no reasons that supreme bodies like that J. G. Jones presides over cannot pay the charges due me, These are all the moneys I have handled, as Mr. Jones is grand commander, grand secretary-general, grand treasurer-general, grand potentate, treasurer, recorder, issuing all charters, patents and rituals direct from Chicago. In his annual addresses made the several grand bodies so far to date I have first to see any mention of moneys that he has received from time to time. Rrelative to the article published last week by Mr. Jones—I will reply later—we rest here
